“ I worked with Alan for years. I can't tell you how saddened I am to hear of his passing. His smile was infectious - it was almost impossible to have a bad day when he was in the room. I would pass him walking at lunch and always caught a look at that same smile. These are just words on a wall. They won't do anything to ease your pain or provide any peace or relief. But please know that he will be deeply missed by many. He made a difference. Not many people can say that. Will keep you all in my thoughts.
