

Mr. Alan Young, Jr.

December 20, 1989 - November 23, 2022

Obituary

Alan Alonzo Young Jr. (“AJ”) unexpectedly passed away on November 23rd, 2022 at the age of 32. He is survived in death by his son, Alan A. Young III (“Tre”), his parents Alan and Yolanda Young, and three siblings: Alana (Gabe) Henry, Aaron (“AY”) Young, and Alexander (“Alex”) Young.

Born December 20th, 1989 at Research Medical Center in Kansas City, AJ entered the world as a jovial ball of energy.

Over the years he participated in a number of activities through which he gained close friends who became like brothers to him, including boy scouts, basketball, and football. He loved working with his hands, and gained a reputation for breaking (and fixing) many things.

After receiving his H.S. diploma and certification as a mason/brick layer, he worked with his father’s construction company remodeling homes and learned how to work on cars. He also helped with his family’s large urban garden and even built his own at-home gym by hand. All the while, AJ continued to demonstrate remarkable talent as a musical artist - one of his life’s passions. Self-taught at the young age of 16, AJ mastered the acoustic guitar, electric guitar, bass, and even played the keyboard and harmonica. He was truly blessed with a gift from God – an ear for music that opened the door to incredible collaborations with other musicians across the metro and region and garnered respect for AJ within the music community. He could be spotted all throughout Kansas City with his guitar and would be sure to sing a quick tune with a boisterous laugh and a smile for any passersby.

His joyful energy and kind, helpful spirit were a gift to his community and all who knew him. He will be sorely missed, but his memory will live on in the beautiful music he created for the world.

Funeral Service will be held Friday, December 2, 2022, 11:00am at Graceway Church. Interment Memorial Park Cemetery. Visitation will be from 9am-11am at the church. Service conducted by Lawrence A. Jones & Sons funeral Chapel. Condolences may be shared on our website.
