Obituary

Alan first saw the love of his life, Sondra Ellis at the Kansas City Hoop-Fest in the summer of 1990. They were married after four years of courtship on November 5, 1994. Three children were born to this union.

Alan was a loving husband, father, son, brother, and uncle. He truly loved his sons. He never missed any of their basketball, football, baseball games or track meets. He was a great supporter of the Palestine Track Club. He never met a stranger and enjoyed being a father figure to his sons' friends. Alan was a very creative minded individual. He was articulate, funny, and intelligent.

Alan was quite the extrovert! He loved to dance, sing, play basketball, shop, garden, and remodel homes. He enjoyed working on cars and playing pool with his father. He adored his mother's cooking, especially at Christmas time. Alan was a Grill Master and a food connoisseur. He loved fishing with his brother, sons, and friends.

Alan was called home to be with the Lord on September 18, 2018.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Tucker family, I worked with Alan for a several years at Burns & McDonnell and on several projects and he was ALWAYS the nicest most patient person to work with and answer questions never getting frustrated with my process. I hope the entire family knows we are all wishing you warmth and love in the coming weeks.

“ I will miss Alan. He always had a smile and wise counsel. I enjoyed being around him. His boys grew up with my Son. He not only would look out for his boys, but for every boy that was with him. A quality man, intelligent and witty. God needed another coach added to the team. Again, Myself and the community will miss Mr. Tucker.
