Obituary

ALESA KAY WILLIAMS JONES

Alesa Kay Williams Jones, our beloved wife, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend of many, departed this life on December 9, 2018 at Saint Joseph Hospital. Alesia was born on October 27, 1962 in Kansas City, Kansas, to George and Lula Mae Williams. She was preceded in death by her mother Lula Mae Williams and brother Lionel Williams.

She attended Francis Willard Elementary and Paseo High School.

Alesa accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was Baptized at Swope Parkway Church of Christ in Kansas City. Alesa was united in holy matrimony to LeAndrew F. Jones on February 14, 1982.

She worked for various companies in Kansas City, but she mostly excelled at being an entrepreneur. She was gifted with multiple talents such as making baskets, having garage sales, and interior decorating. She loved sewing and she was very creative.

Alesa was also co-owner of Jazzy Café' she was a very caring and outspoken woman. She was also willing to lend a hand to anyone. Her greatest joy's in life were her husband, children and grandchildren to whom she loved unconditionally.

In 2007, her health began to fail. This giant of a woman stayed strong while enduring several health issues. Throughout it all, she remained positive and continued to put up a good fight. Her husband carried the weight on his shoulders and remained by her side. He continuously, cared for her until she was called home by the Lord.

“Sleep on Blessed wife, mother, and grandmother and rest assured of a job well done.”

Alesa Kay Jones leaves to deeply mourn her passing, a loving and devoted husband of 38 years LeAndrew F. Jones, their daughters LaTia Sharae Jones, (James L. “ Our sincere condolences to the family. The Bible has beautiful and comforting scriptures to help cope with the grief and sadness. I pray that the family will find comfort in the promise for the future at Isaiah 26:19; “Your dead will live. And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life”. To learn more about this promise please visit our website: jw.org and view the comforting video; What is the Condition of the Dead?

“ Dearest Lisa you were such a funloving and giving person I looked upon as a Sister. I remember us both being pregnant being spoiled by Mom Williams. Saddened that I hadn't had the chance to see that pretty smile and joyful spirit. Rest from your labor. You'll be missed and forever in my thoughts. To the family I'll be praying for your comfort and strength. Love you all.....Alicia Smith

“ To the Jones Family I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the entire family. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. May all continue to reflect on this wonderful promise where God gives us His guarantee that our love ones will stand up in life again. ( John 5:28-29 and Acts 15:24) Many have either heard or read these accounts from the pages of the Bible. On this day God is giving the Jones Family this reminder that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes what comforting words these are to hear. Today we can continue to gain further comfort by reading all nine accounts that speaks about the resurrection blessing from God. Here is just one such account recorded for our benefit at Acts 9:36-42. Yes please keep this promise near your hearts at all times. Remember that we have God's personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. ( Titus 1:2)
