

Ms. Alice Sanders

July 23, 1942

Obituary

Alice Lee Buchanan Sanders, 79 was born July 23, 1942 to Leroy Buchanan and Edna Johnson Buchanan in Kansas City, Missouri.

My sister Alice had many happy times growing up on 15th & Lydia in Kansas City, MO. She attended W.W. Yates Elementary School. Days were filled with going to the movies, roller skating, swimming at Parade Park and playing with the neighborhood kids. Most of all she loved playing with dolls including mine.

As time passed Alice would enter Central High School and was an excellent student. She would advance on to attending college at the University of Kansas City. She took courses that helped her become a school teacher of young children in the Kansas City Missouri School District.

Time just kept right on rolling and Alice would fall in love and married her one and only on May 19, 1962 to Robert L. Sanders of Detroit, Michigan. To this union her one and only child was born, Robert Sanders, Jr., who stole her heart and she simply adored him. He would never marry or have children.

Now if think this little girl grew up to be sweet and gentle think again. But she did have a big giving heart.

Alice became a shop-a-holic, she bought everything under the sun and the moon and often the same product 2 and 3 times and she kept it all. She was so funny. Time is still rolling on and Alice would mellow out. Her neighbors began to love her. She didn't complain as much and became the little old lady to take care of. Our family always loved her too! To know her was to love her. She let her light so shine, so to always be a comfort to those she left behind.

Alice is forever my sister, forever my friend, I will miss her so much as well as her remaining family who will also miss her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Leroy & Edna Mae Johnson-Buchanan; siblings, Aaron Eugene Richardson, and Richard Johnson, Jr., her son, Robert L. Sanders, Jr., and cousin, Melvin Henderson.

Alice departed this life on December 14, 2021.

Alice leaves to cherish her memories: siblings, Judith Wilson Nave, Germaine Johnson, and Darryl Johnson along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ *Alice and my sister, Betty, were friends since they were teen-agers.
They were a part of a "gang of seven" young women that hung out together, mostly at each other's houses to primp, play cards, and "chew the fat" about the boys they knew. My father and brother, George, loved to tease Alice. She would get so mad. And, I loved to hear her laugh. My favorite memory of Alice was that both of us loved capezio shoes with the fringe at the top. We both bought several pairs in all the colors that were offered. Betty and Alice stayed in teach each year around the holidays. Betty knew that something was wrong when her card was returned to her and there was no card from Alice. Our sincere condolences go out to the family. We loved her and will miss her, too! The Boyd Family, Betty, Judy, and George*
