“ Man I don't know where to start .. in 1996 my family moved to Agnes .. I was tired of moving naw literally I'm a young fat guy I don't do no manual labor lol .. so in the middle of moving me and my little cousin hear laughter and the sound of a basketball bouncing in the black yard .. we had to investigate lol .. boy it was the greatest show on dirt .. Art and Al was going at it I mean these lil scrubs was going point for point .. little did I know it was all a tactic .. me and lil cuzz against the twins .. our first hoop game of millions .. I don't know who won .. but I know in good faith pops and somebody finished moving us in and yea .. A brotherhood was born .. All summer we was either riding bikes or hooping .. or our favorite pass time killer man .. Al and Art was tanks these lil dudes could take a hit and dish one out ironically.. what I didn't realize in those moments looking back god was building our bonds from homies to a very tight brotherhood.. and for me the best part was the daily or hourly meetings at moms fence .. she shouldn't have put that thing there cause me and the twins was going to tare it down .. can't no fence separate the Agnes Boys .. so many memories I could go on and on about .. but just to know your no longer with us Al is not a feeling any of us will ever get use to .. it's not a 4th of July any of us will get use to not hearing you trying to blow up the block .. your energy was nostalgic.. you had a sense of humor that's never going to be matched .. your love and loyalty for your friends and family will always be a lesson to remember.. I want to thank Mr and Mrs Shelton for accepting me as if I was one of they're own .. that way whenever I went next door I always felt love .. I want to thank god for Al's life .. you touched so many in your short time here little brother and now god needs one of his soldiers.. so put on your wings and continue to watch over us .. REST IN LOVE BRODY .. until we meet again
