

Ms. Amber Sheri Harris

January 23, 1986 - September 30, 2025

My name is Amber Sheri Harris, and I was born on January 23, 1986, in Kansas City, Missouri, to my loving parents Sharon Harris and Eric Williams. On September 30th, I completed my journey here on earth, right where it began—in Kansas City, Missouri.

I was greeted in heaven by my grandmother Geraldine Campbell, my great-grandmother Regusta Gatlin, my aunt Diane Harris-Berkeley, and my uncle Thompson Love Jr.

Here on earth, I leave behind my incredible parents, Sharon Harris and Eric Williams Sr., and my siblings who meant the world to me: my sisters Erica Harris and Diane Deaver, and my brothers Andre Smith Jr., Eric Williams Jr., and Evan Williams.

I was blessed with a big, loving family that kept life full of laughter and connection. My grandmother Ella Lee Dickerson and grandfather Lee Haynes were always close to my heart. I also leave my aunts Lynda Anderson (Ronnie), Denise Harris, May Harris, and Amanda Harris-Vonscheele; and my uncles John Harris Jr., Johnny Harris, and Johnathan Harris Sr.

My cousins and friends added so much color to my life—especially Alex Smith, Terrica Taylor, and my dear friend Jamala McGary (BM). I'll always be watching over my many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends who were all part of my story.

If you knew me, you know I loved to live life out loud. I enjoyed shooting pool, bowling, going to concerts, eating crab legs and most of all, spending time with my family and friends. I laughed hard, loved deeply, and tried to make every moment count.

I hope I'm remembered for my vibrant spirit, my big smile, and the joy I brought into the room. Keep my memory alive by loving each other fully—and never forget, I did my BIG THING!

Amber Sheri Harris, passed away on September 30, 2025.
