“ To the Cornelious Family: We take this time to express our personal condolences to the family of Bertha Cornelious. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family during this time of great sadness. WE say to all grieving hearts to please keep this comforting promise from God near your hearts at all times. This promise speaks about the resurrection blessing that God has told us that would take place. The promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. In the verses, God tells us that He would cause a calling to go forth to those in the grave to stand up in life again. Yes, what a wonderful promise this truly is. Really, the promise serves as a personal guarantee from God that the resurrection to life would take place. This arrangement would take place because God is the source of life for all living things. (Psalm 36:9) Yes, even if a person dies, God has the power and the desire to restore life back to any person who has died. And to help all to develop strong faith in this future blessing, God has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speak about this grand blessing soon to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I truly hope that all will get a chance to see how these loving verses apply to Bertha, and a great host of others who await their personal awakening from the deep sleep of death. At God's appointed time, we will witness with our very eyes this promise arrangement taking place worldwide. So please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
