“ I met this beautiful soul working at the IRS in 1980. She was so graceful and full of life. And that smile of hers was one that could pick you up if you were down. She was full of wisdom and honest with me all of the time. Giving me an understanding of life that I still carry with me today. The love that she had for her family was one I'll always remember. Her husband and sons were her whole world. The love she had for them made me love my family more. Her Godly persona I'll always remember. I will always hold a special place in my heart for her. God bless her sons and family, may you continue to exhibit the Godly character of Ms. Betty McDaniel in Jesus name.
