“ Brenda and I grew up together as cousins. She was the God-Mother to my niece Audrey. I was with her at the passing of her Stepdad Jessie Hill and remained close to her and husband "Brock" since their return from Bermuda to care for Uncle Jessie.

Through the last two years of her life she would often reminisce of our years growing together and the closeness we shared. Brenda always felt like I was the sister she never had during our youth.

I thank God for the peace and rest she has now achieved. Rest well dearest you're with your heavenly Father now, rest well!!
