Obituary

Brenda J. Mosley was born to Nettie McCaston and Sam Henry McCaston Sr. on July 13, 1952 in Kansas City, Kansas. Her mother, father and oldest daughter preceded her in death.

Brenda attended Kansas City, Kansas School District. Quindaro Elementary, Northwest, Wyandotte High School and Culinary School.

Brenda accepted Christ as her Personal Savior at an early age and united with First Baptist

Brenda leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Marquita McCaston Stewart (DeAndre Stewart), Tawana McCaston; two brothers, Sam McCaston, Eddie McCaston (Vicki McCaston); grandchildren, Dominic Williams, Terrell Ingram, Shappelle Locke (Taniesha Locke), My Kayla Martin and Steven Locke; four great grandchildren, AuJanae Cole, Thomas Cole, Jr., Riley Henderson and AuJanique Cole all whom she adored tremendously. “ I remember meeting the daughter's of Ms.Brenda first and their embrace was one I remember to this day 30 years ago as I learned her daughter's were my big sisters. I soon came to learn why I felt such a welcome from all three of them the moment I met Ms.Brenda! Ms.Brenda was always so welcoming and knew how to make a person feel noticed, knew how to make you laugh and kept it real! Ms.Brenda was a joy to be around whenever I seen her or just got to speak to her over the phone. Ms.Brenda you will be missed by many and may all the good and wise things you poured out over your lifetime-live on through your daughters, granddaughters, grandsons, great-grandchildren, and all you took the time to pour love into over the years. “ I will miss you sis, I will always remember our prayer times, your brother calling my phone and your phone and hearing you say is this legit, or I might be crazy but I'm not stuck on stupid, you feel me, listening to me sing every Sunday from Houston, Texas. I know you are healed, no more pain, and I know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I saved your vm on my phone singing and wishing us a Happy Anniversary, it doesn't seem real, I called your house phone, I know you weren't there but it was something I needed to do for me, God is giving me peace and comfort right now as I am typing this at work. A void is in my heart but God, you always told me I might give out but never give up, gonna miss you lady....Minister Vicki McCaston, Humble, Texas
