Carl was a humorous person who enjoyed having a good time. He was never late for work or any event, you could depend on him to show up anywhere from a half hour to one hour early. Carl loved to tease people and loved when they would tease him back.

twenty-six years. They enjoyed traveling together and took many trips driving long distances for cruises, bowling tournaments and other various destinations.

He loved his family and leaves to cherish his loving memory; his wife, Michelle Bolden; four children, Damien Roath of Beaumont, TX, Byron (Kelly) Bolden of Lee's Summit, MO, Arlesia Sanders of Kansas City, MO, and Sherece (Tellis) Bolton of Raymore, MO; eleven grandchildren; MeCenzie Wendt, Damien Roath Jr., Dakari Roath, Brynn Bolden, Brayden Bolden, Klara Bolden, De Andre (Amber) Holley, Brandon Azim, Taitum Bolton, Teigan Bolton, and Jaxyn Bolton.

The family would especially like to thank VNA Hospice Care and their dedicated hospice nurses and staff, for the kindness, care and compassion they have shown Carl during his journey.
