

Ms. Carmalita Banks

June 26, 1961 - March 8, 2023

Obituary

Carmalita Yvonne Banks was born June 26, 1961 in Kansas City, Missouri to Joyce Banks-Parker and Roosevelt Robertson.

She was educated in the Kansas City Missouri Public School System and gave her life to Christ at an early age.

Carmalita's professional life included many years of work in the service industry' most notably the Missouri Election Commission.

Carmalita was a loving Friend, Sister, Mother, and Grandmother who was affectionately known as "Maw-Maw" to the grandchildren. Carmalita was 'The Provider & Glue' that held the Family together, you went to Mama if you needed help.

One of Carmalita's proudest moments was watching her baby' Anthony graduate Nursing School.

Carmalita was a renowned cook and was known for her delicious roast and potatoes, chicken and dressing, peach cobbler, and peanut butter cookies. She was a comedian, strong willed, and a realist' blunt when she felt the need' even when you didn't want to hear it. We called Mama when we needed a laugh' or a reality check.

Carmalita was proceeded in death by her daughter Lacreshia M. Banks, niece Marquiwa Banks, grandparents Leola and Clyde Stanford and mother Joyce Banks-Parker. Carmalita Banks was called home to be with Jesus Christ March 8,2023. She leaves behind to cherish her memory daughters Shontae Banks, Jacqueline Banks, Joanna Banks and two very special devoted sons Anthony D. Banks and Nathinel Davis and special niece Cherish Nelson. Siblings Gina Burgin (Michael Tobler), Carolyn Banks, Melanie Parker, Patrick Banks, Michael Banks, Gerald Ray Banks, Glenn Parker Jr., Andre Banks, and Tony Banks

“ I just happened to Glance over this, while looking at some news from KCMO area, my heart just dropped. I haven't seen any family members in some Years & I been living in Texas for while. I love the whole family. I marred her brother & divorce, so many years ago, but I never stop thinking about everyone. Her son graduated nursing with my niece. Rest in power for both sister. Praying everyone is good, including Mike Banks Dear God keep this family than & now 🙏
