“ My dear Ms. Curlin you will be missed immensely. Our little brunch group is heartbroken by your passing. we have no doubt you are singing with the heavenly choir now. We will miss you but we are happy you have been reunited with those who left before you especially Ms. Faye who you are probably enjoying a cup of coffee with now! we will see you again some day and all have brunch together again. God's peace to your family. Karla, Erin, Mr. Kevin, and Ms. Patricia

“ My memory of Carolyn is her visit to see me in Marina del Rey, ca. I had broken my leg and she came and cooked me a ribeye steak, baked potato, and fresh sautéed veggies. She then went for a walk on the boardwalk outside my windows and was working it like a catwalk. I was so proud and overwhelmed by her presence and grace. She is greatly missed. We love you Carolyn 🥰
