“ Dear family of Cheryl Gibson-Martin, My heartfelt condolence for the loss of an (awsome) mom, former neighbor, and Centralite of '64.
Her inner strength, positivity,, assertiveness, and enthusiam shall be remembered. I especially remember she and "Bill's" jokes and laughter together about anything and everything; our children playing together when at mom's. May you find peace in days ahead knowing she is in with our Savior, the Comforter. In loving memory, Rebecca Givens
