

Mr. Clarence Larry Williams, Jr.

August 1, 1982 - October 28, 2025

Clarence Larry Williams, Jr. passed away on Tuesday, October 28, 2025. Clarence Larry Williams, Jr. was born August 1, 1982, in Blue Springs, Missouri. He was adopted at an early age by Clarence Larry Williams, Sr. and Phyllis Williams (now deceased) of Moberly, Missouri.

Clarence received his early education in the Moberly, Missouri School District and earned his General Education Diploma in Kansas City, Missouri.

Clarence had many job titles, such as Uber driver, CNA, Pharmacy Technician, Bouncer, but his compassion was the love of Security work. He was a Security Officer at Target, Walmart, Lafferty's, and Raytown School District, just to name a few. When Clarence worked at Raytown School District, he was very proud and enjoyed helping the students. He also participated in Cancer Awareness by getting donations within the school. Clarence took pride in wearing his uniform. One of his favorite hobbies was using and listening to ham radios.

He cherished his family and was an amazing father. Clarence was a loving husband, father, son, and friend. He enjoyed cooking and grilling.

Clarence joined Corinthian Baptist Church of Jesus Christ on January 6, 2013. He departed and received his wings on October 28, 2025.

He leaves to cherish his memories: daughter, Kayanna; wife, Tara; father, Clarence Sr., mom (Jean), stepchildren: Christian, Caitlyn, Megan, and Hope; mother-in-law, Deanna McEntire; uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends. Also, his special friend, Melinda Baker, AKA: Kayanna's mother.

Memorial Services will be held on Saturday November 8, 2025, at 12:00 (noon) at Corinthian Baptist Church of Jesus 6841 Sni A Bar Road KCMO 64129. Private Disposition. Arrangements entrusted to Lawrence A. Jones & Sons Funeral Chapels. Condolences may be shared on our website lawrenceajones.com
