

Cleotha Clay

August 15, 1934 - September 10, 2020

Obituary

Mr. Cleo (Cleo) Clay was born August 15, 1934 in Greenville Mississippi to the late Cleveland Clay and Maude Baxter. He joined "Good Hope Baptist Church" later in his life under the leadership of Rev. James Jackson where he became a Deacon and very faithful one. Cleo loved going to Bible Study and playing the saxophone for the Church choir and other music functions.

He leaves a wife Carrie M. Clay of Kansas City, Missouri; 8 children Calvin Clay of Springdale TX, Michelle Carnes of Chicago, IL, Dexter Harris of Atlanta, GA, Patrick Harris of Atlanta, GA, Felicia Harris of Kansas City, MO, Gina Williams of Kansas City, MO, Cleotha Clay Williams of Kansas City, MO; 3 Brothers and 2 Sisters that preceded him in death; and a host of Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, Nieces, Nephews, cousins and friends.

A Tribute to My Husband

"Mr. Cleo (Cleo) Clay"

You were a simple honest straightforward Man you said what you meant and meant what you said! I will forever love you for that!

“At Last, My Love Has Come Along”

“I never knew what love was then came you”

“Forever thine, Forever Mine, Forever Us...”

Your Wife Mrs. Clay.

Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Saturday, September 19th at Mount Calvary COGIC 2422 Van Brunt KCMO 64127. Visitation 9:00 A.M. Interment Leavenworth National Cemetery.

To send flowers
to the family or plant a tree
in memory of Cleotha Clay, please visit our floral store.

Read More

Tribute Wall

NB

“ On behalf of myself and family, we would like to express our condolences of the passing of your loved one Deacon Cleotha Clay. As you walk through this difficult time, find comfort in the sweet memories of Deacon Clay knowing that God loaned him to you for some years but has now afforded him a home on high. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Prayerfully submitted by Mother Nurma Bell

Nurma Bell - September 19, 2020 at 12:41 AM