“ I drove a beat up faded gray Pontiac 6000 car. The car only had one original hub cap. One day I left my car overnight at the Riddle's house. When I went to pick up my car, Grandma Riddle tells me that Grandpa (GP) Riddle put some hub caps on my car. What she didn't tell me was that GP added three different hub caps on my car. Just imagine a car already ugly, faded, and beat up with four different hub caps on it. It was a sight.
