

Mr. Damon C. Farr

July 4, 1976 - April 8, 2025

Damon was born on the Fourth of July in Kansas City, Missouri, to Ricky and Patricia Farr. Damon lived his life with fireworks in his heart bold, fearless, and unapologetically true to himself.

Damon spent his childhood years in Kansas City, Missouri and lived a few short years in Anaheim, California with his family.

Damon graduated from Paseo High School in 1994 and kept pushing forward earning his associate's degree from Penn Valley Community College and later his bachelor's degree in computer Drafting from ITT Technical College, achieving honors for eight straight quarters. His mind was a sharp, curious engine that never stopped learning.

He loved baseball, football, tennis and women's basketball. He loved soft piano music and movies. A gifted writer, Damon created short stories, plays, and movie scripts that told the kind of stories only he could tell.

And if you ever sat across from him during a game of chess, checkers, or dominoes you knew you were up against a mind that was sharp, competitive, and quick. Damon loved math, and learning about stocks, and investment. He would spend his time watching the markets and C-SPAN.

But more than all of that, Damon was a father, proud beyond words of his son, Chris'l Damon Farr; and a brother; a cousin; an uncle; a friend. Family meant everything to him.

Damon lived out loud. He lived without fear. He lived with courage, and he leaves behind a world that is better for having known him.

He is survived by his beloved son, Chris'I Damon Farr; his parents, Ricky and Patricia Farr; his siblings; his uncles; cousins; and countless friends who will forever carry a piece of him in their hearts.

“ There are truly not enough words that can express how much I am going to miss you being here with us! I know you're here in spirit! A life long bond, my cousin, my brother. A love that's true and like no other! The last time we spent together was 3 years ago on Christmas Day when I got the news about my mother. You gave me your time and helped me through, cousin I appreciate you. Your smile will be missed, your laugh and fun ways will always be remembered. Never will you be forgotten and will always be loved forever! I love you cousin! Love always LeTina Griddine-Hatch
