“ *To the family of David Simpson
I met Mr Simpson at Rediscover, when he was my son Therapist.
What a great , kind, compassionate and professional man. Not only did he greatly help my son navigate in managing his disability but also educated me about his disability. It made for a life changing experience for me in to world of helping others that really need professional care in a difficult situation and disability. Thank you for sharing your loved one with the community. His work and compassion live on because of his dedication and work. I'm forever grateful and thankful. May God bless the family with peaceful comfort to your souls in this time of loss. May Mr David Simpson rest in our Gods presence forever! ❤️*
