“ David Thornton was a member of the Sharon SDA Church in Omaha, NE as a young man. I have fond memories of David and our time together, growing up as a member of Sharon's large youth group. As youth we were blessed to be loved and cared for and supported by our church family. What I remember most vividly about David was when David was serious, he was serious and nothing could deter him from whatever he set his mind to. My deepest condolences to his family, loved ones, and church family. I long for the day when good-byes are no more. Soon and very soon . . .
