“ I extend my sincere condolences to the Tircuit family on their loss. Jehovah God promises us that through his son Jesus, he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. Revelation 21:3,4 Please take comfort from this promise during your time of bereavement.

“ To the Tircut Family We are sorry to hear about the passing of Deborah Tircut. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this time of great sadness. Today we join you in the grieving over the lost of your love. On this day we also share with your family, and other families of the earth these comforting words from God. The following words comes in the form of a promise. The promise tells us that soon God would use His great powers to call to those in the grave, and that our love ones would hear His voice, and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29) Yes from this promise, God is giving us His personal guarantee that Deborah Tircut, and a great host of others will have their lives restored back to them. Today we can continue to learn much about this resurrection expression from God. There are nine account in the Bible that speaks about this grand blessing that is so near at hand. Here is just one such example that is recorded for our benefit at Acts 9:36-42. I truly hope that all will get a chance to see how the verses apply to your love ones. So in closing we say please keep this promise of God near your hearts at aa times. Remember that God has given us His personal promise regarding the restoring of life. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
