

Mrs. Dilcie M. Spencer-Slaughter

December 9, 1951 - June 29, 2025

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

Proverbs 31:10

Dilcie May Spencer-Slaughter, was born December 9, 1951, in Dumas, Arkansas to Booker T. Spencer, Sr. and Corean Sanders-Spencer. She was proceeded in death by both parents, her daughters, Joy Lynn; and Antrina Denise Spencer; and her brothers and sisters, Obediah Spencer; Jimmie Spencer; Luerean Dillion; Booker T. Spencer Jr.; Mayola Racy; and Lee Spencer.

Dilcie was married to Charles B. Slaughter on September 30, 2006. In the Holy Bible, Proverbs 18:22 states. "He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the Lord." They were happily married for nineteen years.

Dilcie was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She loved everybody and went out of her way to express her love to her family. She was always ready to help any family member in need. Family was important to her.

Dilcie acknowledged and accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior. She was a faithful member of Guiding Star Missionary Baptist Church and worked in various roles as a Choir Member and Kitchen Helper. Dilcie loved Jesus and her church with all her heart and soul.

Dilcie worked at the University of Kansas Medical Center as a Contractor Assistant, where she was employed for thirty years. She worked diligently and was very efficient, at any job responsibility assigned to her. Dilcie was an asset to the University of Kansas Medical Center, working as a conscientious and dedicated employee, until she retired.

Dilcie always had a smile for everyone and a warm greeting.

Dilcie when she said that she would do something for Family and/or friends, you could always depend on her.

Dilcie demonstrated faithfulness and gave much love to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, her husband, family and friends. She was a great example of being a phenomenal lady, until the very end.

Dilcie leaves to cherish her memories: husband, Charles B. Slaughter; two brothers, Richard Spencer; and Robert L. Spencer (Vernita Spencer); two grandsons, Andrew Jackson; and Quincy Spencer; great grandchildren; a host of other relatives; and friends.
