July 25, 1946 - May 13, 2019

Obituary

Elaine Monica Rowe was born July 25, 1946 to Jermaine Rowe and Florence Foster in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica. She was educated at Epping Forest All Age School. In the late 60's, she met Derrick Rowe and they moved to Kingston to reside and get married. This union produced four children: Elaine, Suzette, Kevin and Judith. In a previous relationship, she had a son Melford (Tony) Mills. She was a homemaker.

She moved to Kansas City, Missouri in 1985. Derrick later followed in 1987. She was employed as a homemaker, a cook for the Kansas City Missouri School District, and the Hyatt Regency Hotel. She was a member of Grace Point Baptist Church where she was involved in Sunday School, VBS, and other various events. She was also a member of the West Indian Social Club, where she enjoyed trips to Dallas Tx., Houston, Tx., and St. Louis, Mo. She enjoyed game nights, playing Ludo and Bingo.

After being sick for many years, she was finally called home on Monday, May 13, 2019, at home.

She is preceded in death by her parents; son Melford (Tony) Mills; Husband Derrick Rowe; sister Ida Finlayson and nephew Clyde (Suga) Dockery.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her four children: Elaine Hitchings of Tucson, Az., Suzette Bodie, Keving (Michelle) Rowe Sr., and Judith Glenn all of Kansas City, Missouri; 14 grandchildren: David, Rosette, Devoe, Andrea, Aaron, Alan, Reggie Jr., Danielle, Justin, Michael, Ethan, Aniyah, Kevin Jr. and Damarco; 8 great-grandchildren Kameron, Anaiah, Matayus, Laila, Aiden, Devoe, Latonya, Jyleal; (siblings) John Butler, Neville Butler, Patsy Blair, Olive Dawkins, Sadie Rowe, Hilma Rowe (Jamaica), Sonia Ennevor (New York), Amy Henry (England); special niece and nephew Yvonne Llewellyn and William Dockery and a host of other nieces and nephews and cousins.
