“ I pray that my very good friend(brother) for over 35 years is resting and at peace in the presence of Our Lord and Savior. My brother Ernest and I shared a lot of good times and fond memories, he was a gentle man with a gentle soul and big heart. Once I had introduce him to my family they all welcomed him with open arms and excepted him as part of the family. My late mother was very fond of him as she was to him, she nicknamed him Red Ernie lol. I love you my brother in heaven, may God bless and keep your love ones forever.

“ To my father, I love you more than any words can describe. I will never accept you being gone, selfishly however I know you are at peace & for that I can be grateful. Mom will miss you as you were her partner, confidant, lover & friend; continue to send your love to reign down on her from where ever your spirit is in the universe! I want to thank you for loving your baby girl, your princess, your 'Necola' .. I know with confidence no other man could've handled the task nor filled the shoes of being my father as you did. I hope I made you proud.
