“ I met Mr. and Mrs Johnson at Faith Fellowship BC. They invited me and my son over for dinner after church one Sunday and many more after that. I appreciate the love that was always shown towards us and what a great time it was each visit.
Thank you Johnson family for sharing them both with the world. What a godly man and woman they both were and a testimony to God's unconditional LOVE. Jolene

“ Aunt Doll was a beacon of light in this dark world. Always sharing the Word! I was forever amazed at her technology skills! She kept in touch by any means necessary. I am going to miss her, but I have great memories. I also know where she is...that gives me comfort. Well done thy good and faithful servant, WELL DONE!

“ I remember this day😂 I said GRANNY throw yo deuces up and this is what we got 😂😂😂. I am gonna miss not being able to call you on your birthday and asking you if you ready to turn up for the 1 time and you not knowing what I was talking about and me explaining to you EVERY TIME what turn up means! Thank you for letting me be “THAT” grandchild with you! LOVE YOU MRS DOLLY

“ The BEST memory I have.....is my entire childhood. Thank you granny for loving, caring, nurturing & building my foundation that was rooted in Christ. You're now at peace & rejoined with my Paw Paw in heaven. Thank you for teaching me to see & love people with God's love. You will NEVER leave my heart. ❤️
