

Fernando Lindesay Howard, Jr.

January 15, 1983 - December 8, 2018

Obituary

Fernando Lindesay Howard, Jr., affectionately known as “NoNo,” was born to Sheryl McMillain Adams (Curtis Adams) and Fernando Lindesay Howard, Sr. (Geneva L. Gregory Howard) in Kansas City, Kansas on January 15, 1983.

During his early years, NoNo participated on competitive basketball teams earning himself awards, medals, and trophies as a skillful athlete. He went on to attend Raytown South High School and earned his General Education Diploma through The Kansas Department of Education.

He worked for a well-known metropolitan family business, The Lindesay Tree Service, which allowed him to form treasured relationships with his great uncles, cousins, and close family friends. In addition to this, NoNo maintained occupations at The Kansas City Chiefs’ Arrowhead Stadium and The Kansas City Royals’ Kaufmann Stadium throughout his years.

Family was of great importance to NoNo. His children – Fernando, Londen, Kiree, and Azzariah held the most special places inside of his heart. NoNo savored strong, encouraging bonds with his family and took great pride in helping to prepare for gatherings that celebrated his family’s unity during the Fourth of July, Christmas, graduations, birthdays, and anniversaries. Equally important to NoNo were his friends. He was privileged to have experienced the gift of many long-lasting friendships throughout his life.

After NoNo was baptized, he developed a personal relationship with the Lord! He managed to share his time as a caregiver with his late, great uncle, Fredric Lindesay and even volunteered annually for the Salvation Army to raise funds for the less fortunate.

NoNo leaves to cherish his memory three sons, Fernando Howard, III, Londen Howard, Kiree Taylor; one daughter, Azzariah Lindesay; three brothers, Kendall Howard, Curtis Adams Ross, and DesJuan Williams; mother, Sheryl McMillain Adams (Curtis Adams); father, Fernando Lindesay Howard, Sr. (Geneva L. Gregory Howard); special niece, Kaprece Howard; two aunts, Harvetta Kashka and Toby Cummings; two uncles, Jerome Herndon, Denny Robinson, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

Funeral Services 11:00 a.m. Saturday, December 22, 2018, at Christ Church Of The Jesus Hour, 1119 North 18th Street, Kansas City, KS 66104. Visitation 9:00 a.m. Interment Memorial Park.

To send flowers
to the family or plant a tree in memory of Fernando Lindesay Howard, Jr., please visit our floral store.

Read More

Tribute Wall

LO

“ I Love You

London - January 16, 2025 at 12:25 PM

TH

“ After God removes wickedness and suffering, the earth will be transformed into a paradise. Then people will be able to live forever in perfect health and happiness. God’s Word foretells: “[God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4. In that new world, even dead ones will be brought back to life to share in those blessings: “There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) That is why Jesus Christ could tell a repentant evildoer who expressed faith in him: “You will be with me in Paradise.”—Luke 23:43. I hope these thoughts provide some comfort during this difficult time.

tom hoffar - December 21, 2018 at 07:29 PM

MW

“ To the Howard Family. May God Bless You. We will remember Our Friend forever.

Michael and Mark Williams - December 21, 2018 at 04:27 PM

RW

“ Fernando, Sheryl. Kendall and Family, Our prays are with you. NoNo will be truly missed, He will always be in our prays. What we feel right now is hard to put into words. NoNo was like a son to me and a brother to Mike and Mark. They spent many nights at each other house growing up. Our memories of him will be in our hearts forever. We love you and may God bless you.

Rita L. Williams - December 21, 2018 at 03:52 PM

KA

“ No no was such a nice fun little boy. And a very friendly young man. I am so saddened to hear of your loss to the entire family love always Kathy, Kesha, Antjuan

Kathy - December 20, 2018 at 09:01 PM

HR

“ I will miss my cousin. He was so funny. He was like a brother to me. I loved me some No No. I will no longer worry about you because God has called you home. No more pain for you, only peace and happiness in the kingdom of heaven. You will forever be loved.

Harvey Robinson - December 20, 2018 at 02:13 PM

DF

“ Sheryl, Kendall, Fernando and family, No-No will be truly missed. Hold his children, your love and memories of him in your hearts, and he will be remembered forever. You are in my prayers.

Dyantha Harvey Ford - December 20, 2018 at 08:56 AM