Floyd Lee Roberson, 70, peacefully departed this life on June 14, 2025, in Kansas City, Missouri, surrounded by his loving family.

Born on July 30, 1954, in Portageville, Missouri, Floyd was the son of Charles Zella and William Roberson. He was preceded in death by his father, William Roberson and two brothers Jesse Roberson and Johnny Robinson.

He spent his early years in Hayti, Missouri, before graduating from Hayti High School. Beneath his honest and direct exterior, he was a deeply caring individual with a heart full of goodness. Over the years, Floyd maintained connections with numerous friends and acquaintances, and at a moment's notice, he would hop on the highway to visit them.

Floyd's greatest source of pride and joy came from his children, Chakina, Tomika, and Floyd Jr. In his later years, he moved to Kansas City, Missouri, at the request of his daughters, where he spent the last 11 years of his life. This move allowed him to connect more closely with his daughters and become actively engaged in his grandchildren's lives.
