“ My condolences to the family. Our Heavenly Father knows the pain caused by the death of a love one. Even Jesus wept when Lazarus died (John 11:35). He calls death an enemy that will be removed forever (1 Corinthians 26:15). He has promised to undo the effect of death by bringing all our love ones in the memorial tombs back to life (Hosea 13:14). What a joyful time it will be to see your love one again. May these words give all of you comfort.
