“ To The Brewster Family We are truly sorry to hear about the passing of Fred Brewster. Our deepest thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this time of great sadness. May all please draw tender mercy and comfort from this wonderful promise where God assures all grieving hearts that our love ones will stand up in life again. ( 2 Corinthians 1:3-4) God takes the time to reveal this loving promise so that all may draw true comfort from it. The promise deals with the restoring of life back to those who have fallen asleep in death. In these verses, God tells us that He would call to those in the grave, and that our departed love ones will stand up in life again. ( John 5:28-29) Yes the day will come when our departed love ones will respond to this loving calling from God. Really, from this text, God is giving us His personal guarantee that our love ones will certainly live again. This arrangement is possible because God is the source of life for all creative things. ( Psalm 36:9) Yes the future is bright not only for ourselves, but also for those who have fallen asleep in death. Today we can build up our confidences in this promise blessing by reading all nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing from God. Here is just one such example recorded at John 11:32-44. I hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Fred, and to others who await their personal resurrection from God. So may all please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. ( Titus 1:2)
