“ To the Williams Family We take this time to express our personal condolences to the family of Glenda L Williams. Our deepest thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family during this time of sadness. May all please draw comfort from this wonderful promise from God where He tells us about the restoring of life back to those who have died. This comforting promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. In the verses, God tells us that He would soon cause a calling to go forth to those in the grave to stand up in life again. Just imagine, that in the future days to come, that God would cause that calling to be directed to person like Glenda, and a great host of others who have fallen asleep in death. And just imagine what the earth would be like, as the sound of joy and laughter would fill the entire earth, as we witness with our very eyes, our departed loved ones standing up in life again. The resurrection blessing will be possible, because God is the source of life for all created life. Yes, even if a person dies, that person can have their lives restored back to them. (Psalm 36:9) Also, to help all to develop strong faith in this promised arrangement, God has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing that is near at hand. Here is just one such example that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Glenda, and to many others as we await this wonderful promise from God taking place earth wide. So please keep this promise near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
