

Ms. Gwendolyn M. Robinson

May 15, 1957 - April 27, 2025

Gwendolyn “Gwenchy” Marie Robinson 67, transitioned peacefully with her sister Nancy by her side on April 27, 2025 at St. Lukes Hospice in Kansas City, Missouri. She fought and showed great courage in her battle, however she succumbed to health complications. Through it all she remained strong and kept her faith because she always had “Joy in her heart”.

Gwen was born May, 15th 1957 in Pine Bluff, Arkansas to the union of Johnny Robinson and Vera Reliford. She grew up in Kansas City, Missouri. She graduated from B.W. Shepherd State School in Kansas City, Missouri in 1978.

She was beautiful, kind, and had a pure soul. To know Gwen was to love her. She had a great relationship with God. She was known for her infectious laugh, smile, and her passion for old-school music. She loved karaoke, if you started singing, no matter the song she would finish the verse. She enjoyed watching Westerns on MeTV like; The Rifleman, Perry Mason, and Andy Griffin.

Her hobbies were “reading” her bible, watching movies, dancing and being in the presence of family. She was extremely fashionable, there wasn't a day that went by where you wouldn't find her in stacked bracelets and colorful beaded necklaces. She would sometimes ask “do you like my bracelets?” Her “footies” were her favorite and one of a kind and she sometimes changed them three times a-day.

Gwen is survived by her siblings Nancy Robinson, Angie (Eclophia) Smith, Gregory (Brenda Herron) Robinson; and a host of other relatives and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents, and her siblings, Margaret Whitfield and Sheila Robinson.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to Jasmine Bell, VP of Monarch Hospice, and the entire staff at St. Lukes Hospice. "Jesus Loves me, this I know, because the bible tells me so".

Funeral Services will be held on Saturday, May 17, 2025, 11am at Lawrence A. Jones & Sons Funeral Chapel. Interment Brooking Cemetery. Visitation from 10am-11am at the chapel. Condolences may be shared on our website.
