So much can be said about our beautiful Auntie Helen, a woman who embodied charm, elegance, grace, and love. Her warm smile could light up any room, and her genuine spirit and compassion made everyone feel special and deeply valued. I've always loved and appreciated Auntie. Whether I lived in Kentucky, Arizona, California, or elsewhere, we always connected year-round.

I fondly remember growing up enjoying her delicious, buttery pound cakes, creamy macaroni and cheese, delicious greens, and homemade cornbread that was simply unforgettable. Walking into her home always felt like stepping into one of the city's finest museums, filled with beauty, warmth, and treasured memories.

Auntie Helen's remarkable memory was truly admirable. She could recall family stories, friendships, and cherished moments from over sixty years ago, always sharing with laughter, joy, and vivid detail.

It brought immense joy seeing her surrounded by family and friends these last years of her life. I'll always cherish, treasure, and miss Auntie Helen.

“ Auntie Helen will truly be missed. She always carried herself with elegance, making sure she was dressed to the nines, her makeup perfectly done, and her purse by her side. It was an honor to be with her as she transitioned from this life to the next; she was truly at peace. Auntie, you did well and have earned your rest. Love Always
Your Great Niece LaShawn ☐

My Auntie Helen was a joyful, loving, kind, giving, and unselfish person. Her heart was solid gold. She loved God and God loved her. She was compassionate and possessed strong moral character. Her smile was made of sunshine and when she entered a room, the room would illuminate. People were drawn to her beautiful smile and warm disposition. There's nothing that I wouldn't have done for my auntie and she knew it. We had a genuine and trusting bond with each other. The traits that my Auntie Helen have left behind will continue to inspire me. I miss your dearly auntie! Go with God! Your Niece, Lydia Williams
