“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Houston Ford whom I have known for thirty years. He served the Postal Service and the National Postal Mail Handlers Union for decades with distinction. He was greatly responsible for the creation of Local 297 and giving the Mail Handlers in western Missouri and Kansas a voice and control over their representation. Even after he retired from both the Postal Service and Laborers, he continued to serve Mail Handlers and continued to pay union dues. His expertise in workmen's compensation was a blessing to many who were injured on the job. He will be missed and remembered.
