

James "Jimmy" "Jimmy Boy" Noble Crompton, Jr.

September 8, 1943 - November 27, 2020

Obituary

James was born on September 8, 1943 in Kansas City, Kansas to the union of James Noble Crompton, Sr. and Eleanor Lee Crompton. He was the second born of three children. People who really knew James called him Jimmy Boy, a nick name he acquired in his youth.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Noble Crompton, Sr.; mother, Eleanor Crompton Rucker; sister, Angela Crompton; niece, Antoinette Lindesay Harrington; and aunts, Olga Jean Everson and Jacqueline Nichols-Coleman.

Jimmy attended public school in Kansas City, Kansas. He worked and retired from Hardees Restaurant after 30 years of dedicated service. After retiring, he became the primary caregiver for our mother. He dedicated his whole being to making sure she was loved and cared for. He gave her so much joy in her final years and comforted his siblings, knowing our mom was always in good hands.

Jimmy's entire life was so lived: loving, self-sacrificing, real. Born and reared in the church, he was a man of faith and believed in a higher power. Attentive and observant, Jimmy shared his kind and tender-hearted soul with everyone he encountered. He was a quiet, non-assuming man with a dry quick wit and was known for his sharp comebacks. In his spare time, he loved watching televised sports, especially football and racecar driving.

He leaves to cherish his memory: brother, Dwayne Crompton (Freda) of Kansas City, MO; sister, Carol Ann Rucker of Kansas City, MO; uncle, Elliott Nichols of Kansas City, MO; nephews, Anthony Crompton (Tonya) of Kansas City, MO; Shannon Crompton (Angie) of Las Vegas, Nevada; Paul Johnson of Kansas City, MO; nieces, Eleanor Hill (Phil) of Shawnee, KS; Alexis Williams (Nick) of Lee's Summit, MO, and a host of great nephews and great nieces, and other relatives and friends.

“ I knew jimmy for 43+ yrs. I miss him already. We always laughed and joked each time we talked I knew his mom and Angela also. Jimmy was the type of person who never complained no matter what even after he was in a horrible car accident years ago and I visited him in the hospital right after his surgery and still in ICU he still maintained his wonderful sense of humor. He was a very special one of a kind of man and I will always remember him for as long as I live. My sincere and heartfelt condolences to the entire Crumpton family and may God Bless You.
