“ To the Union Family With heavy hearts we take this time to express our personal condolences to the family and friends of James Union. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. Yes we are always sadden to hear about the passing of anyone. Then seeing that we are really all related, we will join you in grieving over our family members. During times like this, we will need to be on the receiving end of getting strong words of comfort from family members and friends. I know that all will be there for you. Please remember that God will also share words of comfort with us. As the scriptures states, God is the source of all tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) On this day God is telling the Union Family true words of comforts. These words are surely Good news for all to hear. The words are a promise from God. The promise simply states that God would call to those in the grave, and that our departed love ones would hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29) Yes this promise should be clear to all. The promise is a personal guarantee from God that James Union, and billions of others will indeed stand up in life again. Yes we understand that there would be some who may doubt this promised arrangement to take place. So God has taken the time to preserve nine account in the Bible that serves as a future preview of the grand blessing soon to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that is recorded for our benefit that will allow us to build up our faith in God and His personal promises. It is recorded at John 11:32-44. May I please take this time to encourage all to see how the verses apply to James, and to billions of others who await this resurrection blessing to take place. Yes please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that God has given us His personal promise. Yes it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)

“ So very sorry. We've known the family for many years and our saddened to hear of your loss. Please take comfort in the love of family and friends and the future promises to come from our Heavenly Father.....”Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment”-
John 5:28,29
