

Ms. Jean E. Ingram

March 23, 1934 - July 14, 2025

Jean E. Ingram was born to Arnold and Mary Harris on March 23, 1934, at Harlem Hospital in New York City, NY. Her father, mother, 3 siblings and one out of 5 daughters all preceded her death on July 14, 2025.

Jean loved God and she was a loving and caring Child of God. Her greatest joy was spending quality time with her family, coloring and dancing. At 91 years old she could still hang with the best of them on the dance floor at family holidays gatherings and BBQs, which always brought her an abundance of joy, laughter and happiness, and everybody always looked forward to eating her “mouthwatering” potatoes salad. Her occasional outing at the casino with her grandson, Cortez Putman, was something she also loved and looked forward to. It was their special time together she enjoyed immensely.

Jean loved to dress and look her best. The first thing she did after waking up, bathing and getting dressed, was comb her hair and put on her makeup even though she wasn't going anywhere.

Jean's health rapidly declined after she fell on May 23, 2025, and broke her knee, which left her immobile for the first time in 91 years of her life.

After 53 years of marriage, Jean became a widow after the passing of her husband on December 9, 2022. Shortly after, she moved in with her daughter and caregiver, Virginia Alder, who lovingly took care of her for 3 years until her passing on July 14, 2025.

Jean leaves to cherish precious memories of her, 4 daughters, 8 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, 7 great great grandchildren, 3 great great great grandchildren and a host of friends who also loved her dearly.

Forever in our hearts. Arrangements entrusted to Lawrence A. Jones & Sons Funeral Chapels. Condolences may be shared on our website lawrenceajones.com

“ I always remember her as Ms Putman. Back in the day. As teenagers Toni & I were best friends. I spent a lot of time over to their place. Ms Putman was always so nice to me. She was a mother figure to me. Toni & I are still friends today. My condolences to the family. RIP Jean Ingram ❤️
