loved being around family and singing in the choir. After retiring from the post office, she moved to Grovetown, Georgia to be near her children.

“ OMG, Joslyn was my BEST FRIEND through high school. My teenage years were a nightmare, but she was my angel. We talked for hours, and she even led me to accept Christ. When I moved away we lost contact. She was so pure! My heart is sad but I know heaven has gained an angel. I love the Green family; sorry for your loss-praying for you and the Ivory Inlaws as well. Be encouraged, God will take care of you.
