“ To the Nelson Family: We take this time to express our personal condolences to the family of Justin Nelson. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this time of great sadness. May all please remember that God is with us, and our departed loved ones. He has given us His personal promise that He would rid the earth of all things that causes pain and suffering, which includes death. (Revelation 21:3-4) God also goes one step further by telling us that He would also use His great powers to restore life back to those who have died. This comforting promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. Yes, God would cause a calling to go forth, and that our departed loved ones would respond to that calling by standing up in life again. Oh, what a grand time period this will prove to be, as we will witness with our own eyes our loved ones standing up in life again. Until this arrangement takes place, we can use this time to learn all that we can about the grand resurrection blessing from God. There are nine accounts that speaks about how some had experienced an earlier resurrection. All such accounts help us to develop strong faith in this promised blessing from God. Here is just one such example that is recorded at John 11:32-44. I hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Justin, and many others in a very special way. So, may all please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes a reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
