“ Months later, this is still hard. Especially after your birthday having just passed. I hope you found the peace that you searched for all your life. I will never be glad or thankful about you taking your life, I only wished the best for you and prayed for your sanity.. Im so sorry it ended this way, but I have to learn how to move on with my life. You will never be forgotten, and I will carry this in my heart forever but.. I have to say my goodbye to you. I hate that this tragedy had to happen, and I will always continue to pray for your soul.. forever.

I love u lil boo-b. I miss you so much twin . You were more than just my cousin, we are both named after your father. I think even with u not being here and the lee side of family never able to closure after your passing is why i watch grandma cry he self to sleep evey night and your father in a very dark place. I want you to know we never would have allowed you not to have a home going. We miss and love you and wish we could habe had something of yours to remember you by. I know you were involed in some mess before u passed but shoild that really stop yoir family from having a funeral? What about all the years before. We promised grandma never to say good byr but i see you later, i guess thats why last time u seen me you said good bye. God bless

I wish I would've kept contact with you and things didn't happen the way it did. I thought about you all the time and hope you knew how much I cared. Lol if you was here, I know you would think that's bs but it's not. You left a lasting impression on me and I thank you for it. I will always love you. Rest well Kareem 💕💕

“ It’s been 3 years and I still don’t feel like I have the right words. there isn’t a day that goes by where you don’t cross my mind.... I never got closure, I never wanted this as much as we went through you know I wanted nothing but happiness for you. You were my first love, you taught me so much, and for that I thank you. You will forever hold a special place in my heart. Kareem I forgive you, and rest easy. ❤️

Hi everyone! Just wanted to stop by and let everyone know I'm taking exceptional care of little Kareem! He's such a naughty boy and we love that down here, gives us so much to do on/to him, MUCH fun for all...well, except the murdering Kareem anyway. Oh well, free will will get ya when you're a disgusting, vile, selfish, piece of sh*t, worthless, pure scum person lie he was! Let his scum life be a reminder to not follow his footsteps, y'all, or you'll be here with me and my friends for an ETERNITY in constant pain, misery, crying out for his mama all day long like a little B*! HAHAHA, yeah, he's like a little boy here now, constantly crying, wish he'd shut up actually so maybe I need to remove the crying part of him. Take care, he really misses y'all! -SATAN

“ I'm glad you're dead because you were a monster. Got your little feelings hurt and decided people had to be killed because of it. You killed an innocent person that had nothing to do with your hurt feelings other than the fact that she was a white girl, just like the one that broke your heart. You killed her for being a white woman. You're no better than the whites who owned, raped and killed slaves. You're the exact same as them. A racist monster. And then you killed yourself like a fucking coward. The poor little racist killer didnt wanna face the consequences because he was just a scared little racist with no balls. I will never feel sympathy for someone like you. The world is a better place without you in it. Your soul was ugly and rotten.

“ I still struggle and have a hard time with this whole situation.... to whom it may concern I still have a hard time with letting go of guilt. J- I want to tell you personally but I'm always afraid that grief might over power some things. And though I could never replace a life, I want to say I'm so sorry for these losses, despite the the circumstances. I also want to say, Kareem I really need you to move on. I need you to leave me alone, I'm so tired of the memories, ruminating, and nightmares. What happened- happened and it's been years. It's time for you to find your peace so I can find mine as well. I hope your family can move on from this, but I need the same for me and others as well. I understand this will never go away but can you please stop visiting me in my dreams. I just want you to be at peace and move on respectively. We all deserve the opportunity to move on.. please.
