“ To the Ross Family: I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the family of Kaye Ross. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this hour of great sadness. No there is never a welcomed time to hear about the passing of anyone. When death strikes, it only serves a clear reminder of how far the human family has fallen from God's original purpose. Despite the falling, God has never turned His back or support for us. HE provides words of comfort to all who are grieving at heart over our personal lost. He also tells us that in the very near future, that he would take action in ridding the earth of all things that causes suffering to us. (Revelation 21:4-5) I personally enjoy this next scripture. In this text, God tells us that he would soon use His great powers to call to those in the grave, and that our love ones would hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29) Oh what remarkable words these truly are. From this one promise, God is giving us His personal guarantee that Kaye Ross, and billions of other will surely stand up in life again. That Kaye would be reunited back with her many family members and friends. Yes there are many more promises that God has in store for us that are revealed right in the pages of the Bible. So in closing we say please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For God does not lie. (Titus 1:2)

“Kaye you were the cousin who ushered me into how to "flow" as a teenager. We were road dogs in our youth and had many great times together. We laughed, shared secrets, harassed our older siblings and talked about our plans for the future. "But as many as received him, to them gave he POWER to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." (John 1:12 & 13) May your soul rest in peace and POWER eternally with Christ Jesus.

“Momma I miss you already, but I know our Heavenly Father has the final say and when he speaks, he brings his Angeles home. Acts 1:7 He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority.
