Obituary

Our beloved Khasheme Strother was tragically called home Wednesday February 17, 2021 alongside her son Raymon Hill due to domestic violence. Raymon was protecting his Mother. She was 35 years old born October 27th, 1985. Khasheme was a vibrant, funny, smart, strong, determined and loving Mother.

She worked as a CNA and entrepreneur. She dedicated her life caring for her 5 boys, family members, and others in the community. She had such a compassionate heart. She would support anyone if they were passionate about their dreams. She worked multiple jobs in the healthcare field at a time to provide for her family. During her last days she worked at BHH and Edgewood Manor in Raytown caring, and creating change for individuals to have a meaningful life. She wanted all people to be happy, healthy, and live their best lives. She loved life and all the people in it. She was an angel walking on earth. We will always remember Khasheme for her big, beautiful smile, hard work, and dedication to her loved ones.

She leaves behind her mother (Emma Tanner), father (Vic Strother), brother (Kwazi Tanner), sister (Khalena Strother), sister (Sonya Tanner), 4 sons Keyone, Keandre, Jamiah and Daniel. She also leaves behind a host of Aunts, Uncles, and cousins. We appreciate all the support and prayers at this tragic time. Until we meet again Khasheme. We love you!
