“ Laughing and enjoying life is how I will always remember my older cousin Mark. I know most probably know him as Kimaru but he was always cousin Mark to me. We haven't seen one another in several years and I now deeply regret this. The last time we spoke we talked about how long it had been and how we needed to get together soon. That never happened but maybe this will ignite a spark with the family to see each other and love on each other more, I'm sure Mark would have wanted this. We will miss you cousin, may you rest in God's eternal peace. I love you.
