

Miss Kushira Daniels

March 28, 2011 - July 17, 2023

Miss Kushira Daniels, passed away on July 17, 2023. Kushira Zama'rie-Kay Daniels (Kush) was born March 28, 2011, in Kansas City, Missouri at Truman Medical Center. She was the middle child of three girls to Logan Daniels, Esq, and Melva Moore. Kush started her early childhood education with Alphabet Academy and continued with Foreign Language Academy from K-6th grade. There she participated in cross country, robotics, anime club and basketball. Kush was also an active member at the YMCA, taking her team all the way to the championship and winning in 2016. Kush participated in Delta Academy, a mentorship program for girls in middle school. She also participated in afterschool and summer programs at Emanuel Day Care. Kush was a "Tomboy," who enjoyed everything sports, bike riding, gaming and anime. Her music selection was as eclectic as her spirit, liking 90's hip hop/R&B, Queen, to Marshmallow Man, and Tanne Impl. Kush was "One in a Million" who left her mark on our hearts and the world.

Kushira was preceded in death by her Maternal Grandmother Phyllis Akins and Paternal Grandmother Andrea Daniels. She leaves to mourn her passing: Logan Daniels, Esq. (Father); Melva Moore (Mother); Ajala Anavberokhai-Daniels (Bonus Mother); Egypt Moore (Sister); Storm Daniels (Sister); Logan Daniels, Sr, (Grandfather); Kymberly Daniels (Grandmother); Thomas Moore (Grandfather); and a host of family, friends and loved ones.
