

Ms. Lajuana Y. Saxton

February 15, 1961 - December 7, 2022

Obituary

Lajuana Yvette Saxton, 61, was born on February 15, 1961 to Arthur Saxton and Clotee (Anderson) Saxton in Kansas City, Missouri.. She was preceded by her father and a son, Charles Saxton.

Lajuana was a lifelong area resident and was educated in the Kansas City Missouri Public Schools. She attended Graceland Elementary School, Paseo High School and Northeast High School graduating in the class of 1980. She furthered her education and obtained her CNA certification. She accepted Christ at an early age at the Pleasant Green Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Gerald H. Schiele. She was a gifted singer and pianist, she was a member of the church choir during her youth, she was also active in various other ministries in the church.

Lajuana worked as a CNA for many years. She enjoyed mentoring young men, young women, and single mothers. She loved being a blessing to others by giving away food, clothing and essential items for people in need. She liked to travel, fishing, camping and gardening flowers and vegetables.

Lajuana was a loving mother raising four sons, as a single parent, she worked diligently to instill in them a sense of character, strong moral values and black pride. She loved music by artists such as Frank Sinatra, Marvin Gaye, Natalie

Cole. Isley Brothers and Earth, Wind & Fire.

She departed this life December 7, 2022.

She leaves to cherish her memory, three sons, Maurice Doniphan, Leon Doniphan and Jor'Dan Saxton; her mother, Clotee Saxton; two brothers, Paul Saxton and David Saxton; three grandchildren Nia Doniphan, Javon Bennett and Austin Isaiah Doniphan; two godchildren, Donara Boles and Ciara Boles; god sister and best friend, Sara Howard, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins other relatives and friends.

A Memorial Services will be held Tuesday, December 20, 2022, 3:00pm at Linwood Chapel. Service conducted by Lawrence A. Jones & Sons Funeral Chapel. Condolences may be shared on our website.
