“ It has been a morning Des because we all hate to lose I loved ones, however we must carry on be strong and then all the memories smile and remember always the good times positive support and love that was shown the strides that had remained and passed on I'm grateful for having an uncle Lawrence it took time stood and as a positive role model never replace my father but still the pace and taught me as his own fulfilling a a male father figure after my daddy who also was in the service but lost early age of seven I appreciate everything , his non-judgemental but understanding tough love and reminders not to get rough but to come from up under the bouts and a life destructive choices I was doing then the encouragement the believing in we all go through things but pu pickt yourself up keep pushin God is the answer, not the way I was doing young back then. Hey how I've traveled to make to the Monica my family know the woman of God that I was raised by by my mother father family and all To be. I'm living by God's hands managing and working with me that I'm going to say I love u thank you I was going to be okay and I will make it God close to me don't worry I'm glad you a t peacel and you played your position well you will never be forgotten. Yo Great job my mother and father would have been proud . The best uncle a niece the ever had be free now and I hope I have made you proud. Still come and yes. every once in awhile I still need your protection and Gordon angel arms around to protect me. Thank you very much rest in peace I love you Uncle Lawrence niecy Lil Monica
