“ *Every year, Mrs. Brown worked the NAIA mens basketball tournament at KC Municipal Hall. Thats where I got to know this sweet lady. Every year she would give me a greeting and a hug. We were so saddened to learn of her passing at this years tournament.
She was one of the reasons I looked forward to going to the games.
Many, many NAIA basketball fans are expressing their sadness at her passing.*

“ Our condolences to the family of Lizzie Brown. We enjoyed her loving and caring personality. Cheerful and infectious smile. When around Ma Liz, she always made us feel special. Ma Liz welcomed us at her home (hospitable) and table (great meals) on several occasions. We will miss you!!! but we have fond, funny, happy memories. You are so loved!

“ Liz! We hadn't been to a Mavericks game since New Years Eve until tonight, when we found out our friend is now gone. We just want her family and friends to know that she touched SOOOOOOO many lives! For years attending games at the ice rink she always greeted us with that smile and her banter, she was always laughing, smiling and enjoying life. She was a hard worker. She never let us pass by without a hug! She just touched our family with her love and kindness, as I am certain she did with so many others. She was part of our hockey family and she will be forever missed and always remembered. I wish more people lived their lives like Liz embracing everyone with kindness and love! She was one in a million for sure.

“ I am one of the adopted sons of Debra Jones (Daughter of Ms.Lizzie Brown).Ms. Brown I met her at the Kansas City Convention Center as she checked my lunch bag.During that period I was attending a large religious convention and she was working security.When she found out I was on staff of the ministry holding the religious meetings. She told all of the security let him go on. He's apart of the convention. When she found out that I knew her daughter Debra. She embraced me with open arms and said, Im calling debbie. It was always a joy to be in your presence for many years attending the convention and watching her do her job.I am praying for the entire family....Submitted:Reverend Solomon J.
