“ To the Greenwood Family: We are sorry to hear about the recent passing of Louise Greenwood. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family, and friends of the family during this time of great sadness. May all grieving hearts please draw true comfort from this loving promise from God where He shares with us about the resurrection blessing that is very near at hand. This comforting promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. As the text states, that God would cause a calling to go forth to those in the grave to stand up in life again. Just imagine what this time period would be like, as we witness with our own eyes our departed loved ones standing up in life again. So, so you see Louise, and others having their lives restored by God? This arrangement will certainly take place because God is the source of life for all things. (Psalm 36:9) Even if a person dies. Even if a person has been dead for a long period of time. God has the power and the desire to make that person whole again. So, each of us are now confronted with this one question. Do we have faith that the resurrection hope will take place. Even if our faith is weak, it can be built up. This can be done by reading all nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection hope that is right before us. Here is just one such example that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I truly hope that all will get a chance to see how these loving verses apply to Louise, and a great host of others in a very special way. As always, we encourage all to please keep his promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
