

Mabel Louceil Jackson

August 21, 1925 - November 22, 2020

Obituary

Mabel Louceil Jackson, 95, gained her angel wings on Sunday, November 22, 2020. She was born on August 21, 1925 in Blackwater, MO to John Poindexter and Mary (Parrish) Poindexter. She came to Kansas City, MO as a young lady and has resided here for most of her life. She became a Christian at an early age and had previously attended Park Avenue Baptist Church and Morningstar Baptist Church. She would pray on her knees every night even well into her 90's.

Mabel married Jesse M. Elbert Sr. and three children were born to this union, Jesse M. Elbert Jr., Mary H. Morris, and Marzelia L. Gartrell. After this marriage was dissolved, she married Leon J. Jackson and two children were born to this union, Chaunceyetta Jackson and Cynthia Jackson.

Mabel was a homemaker for most of her life and enjoyed cooking, sewing, gardening, caring for children, and babysitting grandchildren. She would attend the annual Home Shows and the Flower, Lawn & Garden Shows. She was compassionate about helping others and had assisted the schools by serving as a room mother, baking desserts, and washing mats. She enjoyed exercise, loved Bingo, vintage movies, reading, and music. She was very elegant and stylish and enjoyed dressing up for events. She had a very sweet disposition and would always say, "Thank you for calling." or "Thank you for stopping by". She often said that she felt lucky and happy.

Mabel leaves to cherish her memory: 1 son, Jesse Elbert Jr. (Joyce); 4 daughters, Mary Morris, Marzelia Gartrell (John), Chaunceyetta "Chaun" Jackson, Cynthia Jackson, and 1 stepdaughter, Harriett Hankins; 8 grandchildren, Richard, Terrance, Psyche, Suamia, Rashaunda, Quillona (Mike), Lanard, and Matthew; 15 great-grandchildren, 4 great-great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
