“Chell” as we all knew her, transition so suddenly, so quickly, so young, yet God had full control over her forty-six years in this lifetime. Chell was a kind spirit, outspoken and bold. The loudest voice in the room. She went unheard growing up being the baby of the bunch. She was spoiled rotten always happy and with a smile. “Buster” the family dog loved him some Chell too. They played day in day out. She was very family oriented since a kid. She enjoyed shopping with her Mom and picnicking with her Dad. Those were the fun times she had.

Later in life she grew a passion for helping others. Her calling was in the medical field becoming a CNA even tried getting her CMT. Her last place of employment was Meyers Nursing Home in Kansas City, Missouri.

Marshallia and Henry moved their family to Springfield, Missouri leaving the city girl behind almost becoming a country woman. Chell wasn't one to stay put, a few years later she moved to Anadarko, Oklahoma where she gave birth to her baby boy Darnell Marchell Henderson.
